Dear Office of the Ombudsman (II),

Thank you for providing Axis Bank's response. I humbly submit my disagreement with the Bank's decision to close my complaint. Their reply appears to be a standard template that does not take into account the actual cybercrime that occurred, nor the timeline of my reporting.

Please find my specific comments and the attached evidence for your kind perusal:

1. Victim of Cyber-Deception (Phishing) and Proof of Third-Party Fraud:
In their reply, Axis Bank says I "divulged" or willingly shared my details to a third party. This is not true. I was tricked by a sophisticated cyber fraud (phishing). The fraudsters called me under the pretext of a credit card limit increase. To gain my trust, they strictly instructed me not to share any card details with them over the phone. Instead, they told me to open a link they provided and complete the online process by myself. Believing it was a genuine Axis Bank portal, I proceeded. Unfortunately, it was a fake phishing link that secretly captured my credentials.

Immediately after the fraud, I filed a formal complaint with the Cyber Crime Police (Please see attached: Stamped Police Report). During their official investigation, the police obtained the attached order history directly from Amazon and shared it with me. I humbly request you to check this official data (Please see attached: CRIM1471218 2026 DS.xlsx), which clearly proves:

- Item Purchased: "Bangalore Refinery 24k Gold Bars" for the exact disputed amount of INR 105,766.00 using my card ending in 7619.
- Fraudster's Identity: Ordered by a third party named Mukesh Kumar (Email: mukesh3kumar31@gmail.com / Phone: 7838092721).
- Delivery Location: The gold was physically delivered to Noida, Uttar Pradesh (Zip: 201301). I declare that I have absolutely no connection to this individual or this address.

2. Submission Regarding Deficiency of Service(Reported within 35 Minutes):
In their response to your office, Axis Bank has stated: "transactions are processed electronically without any manual intervention. Hence, once the transaction is authorized and approved the same cannot be stopped or reversed".
I reported this fraud to Axis Bank within just 35 minutes of the transaction occurring (Please see attached: 1. Screenshot of the Bank's Transaction Alert showing the exact time of fraud, and 2. Initial Service Request Proof showing my immediate report).
I humbly submit that the bank's inability to stop the settlement when notified this quickly is a gross deficiency in their system. I request the Hon'ble Ombudsman to kindly evaluate my case under the protection of RBI Circular DBR.No.Leg.BC.78/09.07.005/2017-18 (Para 7) regarding zero liability for customers.

3. Prior Submission to the Bank:
I had previously submitted this exact Police evidence to Axis Bank's Principal Nodal Officer (Please see attached: Complete Bank Email History), but it seems it was ignored before they submitted their template response to your esteemed office.

4. Unjustified Interest Charges, CIBIL Damage, and Mental Agony:
Despite my submission of official police investigation data linking the transaction to an unknown third party in another state, Axis Bank continues to penalize me. They have generated a new billing statement adding unjustified interest and late payment charges on this disputed amount(Please see attached: Latest Credit Card Statement).
Furthermore, in their attached response, the bank explicitly threatened me with collection follow-ups and negative impacts on my credit bureau records if I do not pay for this fraud. The bank's refusal to acknowledge the third-party evidence, combined with their continuous dismissive replies over the past weeks has caused me severe mental exhaustion, stress, and harassment.

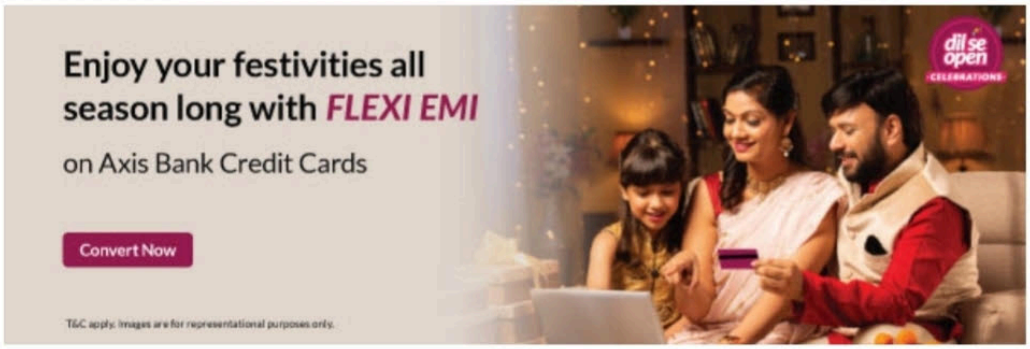

Relief Sought:
I have immense faith in the RBI Ombudsman to provide justice to common citizens. I respectfully request you to review the attached evidence and kindly direct Axis Bank to:

1. Immediately reverse the unauthorized principal transaction of INR 105,766.00.

2. Reverse all interest, late fees, and financial charges levied on my card due to this disputed amount.
3. Rectify and restore my CIBIL/Credit score by withdrawing any negative reporting immediately.
4. Award suitable compensation for the severe mental agony and harassment caused by the bank's deficient service and coercive recovery tactics.

Sincerely,
Mandeep Singh
